Agenda:

1. Enriching your teaching of computing – an in-depth look at some free resources
2. Effective prevention education and how this can be applied to e-safety
3. Bring and share*
4. E-safety updates

*Colleagues are asked to bring one or two items or ideas to share with everyone. Items could include a useful website, some other good resource, an interesting piece of hardware or software, a classroom activity that went well, a handy tip or technique or anything else that might be useful to support learning in Computing or when ICT is being used to support other subjects. These items do not have to relate to the rest of the agenda.

Summary directions to Brookfields School

From the M4: The school is sited close to the A329 Oxford Rd. Depending on the direction you are coming from you can exit the M4 at either J11 or J12. From J11 follow the A33 into Reading and then head west along the A329. From J12 you will need to strike out north from the A4, initially along Langley Hill, then using various secondary roads. If using a sat nav, use this postcode RG31 6GG.
