
E-safety web links

Parents (and others)

<http://parents.vodafone.com/>

Digital parenting guide
(download or order)

also www.vodafone.com/parents

<http://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/>

CEOP – Child Exploitation and Online Protection Centre. Good parents section.

<http://www.childnet-int.org/>

ChildNet - Welcome to Childnet International, a non-profit organisation working with others to "help make the Internet a great and safe place for children".

General resources

<http://www.saferinternet.org.uk/>

UK Safer Internet Centre

http://www.kenttrustweb.org.uk/kcn/e-safety_home.cfm

Kent CC and partners, a wide range of resources

<http://www.swgfl.org.uk/Staying-Safe>

South West Grid for Learning, a wide range of resources including the 360 Degree Safe online tool

<http://www.lgfl.info/esafety/pages/esafetyhome.aspx>

London Grid for Learning, a range of resources

<http://www.education.gov.uk/ukccis/index.cfm>

UK Council for Child Internet Safety. Background documents and the government angle.

Using digital images in education

www.jiscdigitalmedia.ac.uk

Technical Advisory Service for Images (TASI) provide advice, training and resources on using digital images and sound in education. Primarily aimed at further and higher education, there is material of use to primary and secondary teachers. There is a good section on copyright.

Search engines for children

www.ajkids.com

Ask Jeeves for Children

<http://yahooligans.yahoo.com>

Yahoo for Children

<http://primaryschoolict.com/superhi.php>

Safe Search

Material for teachers

<http://www.teachtoday.eu/>

Covers a range of areas including e-safety and data protection – site is about living with technology. Excellent site, brings together material from a range of sources. Industry-led.

<http://cybersmartcurriculum.org/lessonsbygrade/> Lesson plans K-12

Information and data handling

For Becta guides:

http://webarchive.nationalarchives.gov.uk/20110125093520/http://schools.becta.org.uk/index.php?section=lv&catcode=ss_lv_saf_se_03&rid=14734

<http://www.teachtoday.eu/>

See above for description

Writing e-safety policies

SWGfL guidance:

<http://www.swgfl.org.uk/Staying-Safe/Content/News-Articles/Creating-an-e-safety-policy--Where-do-you-start->